During the examination one of the witnesses this morning. He was a son of Erin, an Irishman of the Mickey Free order, though the fantastic conceptions of what he was pleased to call his mind were not so harmless as those of the son of a son of Charles the Third's valet. The case on trial was a damage suit of August Haenchen against the Missouri Car & Foundry Co. for the loss of four fingers in a planing machine. The company was a large company, had testified for the defendant and the plaintiff's attorneys were attempting to prove that Loftus was not a credible witness. In order to do this, M. C. Daly, who had worked with Loftus on the trial, testified that he had been cross-examined by Maj. Lee. From the beginning to the end of the cross-examination he had been a witness to nothing. When Murphy had been spoken of and Maj. Lee said:

"Now, Daly, you and Loftus and Murphy are all good Irishmen, are you not?"

Remedies, costing $1.75.
Our little son will be years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We consulted a physician, who treated him with about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supported by the physician to be an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were temporarily obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda water. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all to the failing, the child steadily worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him CUTICURA Resolvent. The child steadily improved, and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him no more. He has been free from the eruption every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible rash. In all our use less than one-half of a bottle of CUTICURA. Rarely does it cost less than one box of CUTICURA, and only one case of CUTICURA SOAP.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1890.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.
OLYMPIA—The New American Opera Co.,
Grand—Frederick Ward.
Fulton—The "Water Queen."
Parker—The "Daddy Nolan."
Standard—Goodbye's Minstrels.

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Clear weather; much colder; northerly winds.

Gen. Harrison is really gone from the State portfolio there need be no further speculation as to whether Mr. BLAINE will be in the Cabinet.

The railroad Presidents are making agreements to maintain rates, while the other officials are breaking them. The Presidents should find some method of bringing their employees into harmony with their apparent policy if they desire to do so.

The report that an American correspondent had MATAFIA's forces against the Germans in a recent Samoan battle probably arose from the habit of the American reporter of "scooping" all other reporters. Mr. KLEIN doubtless wanted to get a diagram of the first shot and interview the skirmishers.

The vindication of German justice at the expense of the elder BISMARCK in the Geffcken case came simultaneously with the vindication of MORIER and the late Emperor FREDERICK at the expense of both BISMARCKS. It is remarkable that FREDERICK dead can rap their fingers more severely than he ever did when living.

By the simple process of saying to the telephone monopoly, "Cut your rates or remove your poles from our roads," Cook County's Commissioners have secured a 50 per cent reduction of telephone charges. It is to be hoped that the telephone legislation enacted at Jefferson City this winter will increase rather than diminish the authority of each municipality to settle the telephone question for itself.

JUDGE TULEY of Chicago will on Saturday deliver an important decision on the right of the police to prevent gatherings, assumed by them to be combinations of disorderly persons meeting for criminal purposes. The spirit in which he will handle the subject is probably manifested in his remark that it is to the credit of our country that no similar exercise of police authority has yet been passed upon by our courts, and that it is as important to suppress disorderly and criminal combinations as it is to preserve inviolate the right of free speech and peaceable assembly.

The Haytian authorities are demonstrating their ability to hold what they capture in an altogether novel way. Admiral LEROI nominally has possession of the Haytian Republic, but has been unable to obtain actual possession, because the occupancy of the ship by the Althay Haytian soldiers has made it uninhabitable for anybody else. There seems to be a general willingness to let the negro republic alone in its fifth and savage and a conclusion of its troubles in the victory of Gen. HIPOLYTE is probable at an early date.

COLLECTOR SEXTON has at last taken efficient action towards suppressing the dives in this city by refusing to issue saloon licenses to two keepers of notorious dives—PAT MONTAGUE and JOHN DAVIS. Both DAVIS and MONTAGUE have been reported by the Board of Police Commissioners as persons unfit to receive saloon licenses. It was at MONTAGUE's place that GUS BRANCONIO came to his death in a mysterious way, and the Post-Dispatch then called attention to his disreputable record as a dive-keeper. Collector SEXTON has done his duty in refusing licenses to these men, and it is to be hoped he will continue to act on this line.

The New York Supreme Court Circuit has decided in the suit of the State against the North River Sugar Refining Co. that the latter, by selling its stock to the Sugar Trust and closing its works, simply passed out of existence as a corporation. If the General Term and the Court of Appeals sustain this decision, which is in line with many recent decisions, the effect will be to resolve the Sugar Trust into a mere partnership succeeding to the property rights and pecuniary responsibilities of the various corporations composing the trust, as any purchaser might, without acquiring any of the corporate rights conferred by the charters upon the defunct corporations. As the Sugar Trust will not be dispossessed of the property by this decision, we do not see how it can impair the booming prosperity of that monopoly.

The Nicaragua Canal Co., already fully incorporated by State action, asked for incorporation by the United States on the ground that such incorporation was needed to secure to the company the benefit of the approval, protection and moral support of the United States Government. If that avowed object was the sole object of the bill, we do not see what exceptions the friends of the enterprise in the Senate can take to the amendments imposed by the House. These merely require that a majority of the directors shall be citizens of the United States and the rest citizens of Nicaragua; that the company shall make an annual report to our Secretary of the Interior; that the company shall accept no further concessions from Nicaragua affecting the rights of our citizens without the consent of our Government; that the stock shall be paid for in money and shall not be increased above $100,000,000 except by a vote of two-thirds of the stock; and one House amendment expressly declares that the United States shall not be responsible for the company's debts. Without such amendments it would be a dangerous measure. It should not be passed in any shape which will create a basis for such claims as the bankrupt Panama Canal Co. is now pressing with strong popular support upon the French Government.

Tolerably Plain.
From the Kansas City Times.
Plain language from Gov. Morehouse: "Now, I want to say, and say it strong and in plain, unmistakable language, that the editor of the Republic is a liar. I want to say that over my own signature." This seems to be tolerably plain and unmistakable. Under the circumstances we can hardly blame Mr. Jones for putting a personal construction on the statement.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.
COLLINSVILLE READER.—James L. M. Curry is our minister to Spain.
COLUMBIAN READER.—The Journal of Mechanics has not selected headquarters yet.
FULTON.—The houses within the limits of the town of Fulton are not for sale.
SUBSCRIBER.—Call on the stationery firm from whom you purchased the paper, and they will answer the question.
E. M.—The Henry E. Dixey Adonis Combination is playing at Kansas City, Mo., this week.
M. C. H.—What do you mean by "United States Directory"? Your question is not clear.

ELIS. FRIEZE, JR.—The negroes were brought to this country as slaves. They were not made so by any act of law.
W. E. W.—A letter addressed to Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, care of the Mail and Express, New York, will reach her.

F. O. Y.—The Legislature of Arkansas has passed a resolution that the name should be pronounced as it is written Arkansas.
E. M.—John Brown is with the Zie-Zag troupe this year. Pay Templeton is about 26 years of age. She is in Paris now.

CONSTANT READER.—The Memorial Home is the place for the memorial service.
W. H. B.—The coins you have are quoted as follows: Half cent, 1864, no premium; half cent, 1865, 12 cents; 10 cents, 1 cent; 20 cents, no premium.

J. K.—The law will not compel you to live with your wife under the circumstances you mention, but it will compel you to support her as long as she is your wife.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—A good book for information regarding grain and stock brokerage is "The Manual of Statistics," issued by the Financial News Association, New York City.

SUBSCRIBER.—A husband can sell the house, but he cannot sell the wife. If he is able to do so, the law compels him to take care of her.

CONSTANT READER.—If in a game of poker dice a throw of five and six is made, the throw will not win, and afterwards the throw is lost. It is, irrespective of the throw. The four fives did not win.

A HUNTER.—A good way to clean the stone in a fountain is to use a smooth sandstone from some marble polisher and use in place of soap. It will soon make a difference in the appearance of your fountains.

FIREMEN ON TRIAL.
The Police Board yesterday dismissed John J. Leyden for desertion. Patrolman Freeman was tried on charges of intoxication, which were dismissed without prejudice. The case of Detective Tucker, who has been drunk in the past, was reported by the Chief. Some testimony was taken on charges of stealing against Patrolman John Kelly, who was dismissed under advisement. Patrolman James McGuire's case, in which intoxication is charged, was also taken under advisement.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.
OLYMPIA—The New American Opera Co.,
Grand—Frederick Ward.
Fulton—The "Water Queen."
Parker—The "Daddy Nolan."
Standard—Goodbye's Minstrels.

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Clear weather; much colder; northerly winds.

Gen. Harrison is really gone from the State portfolio there need be no further speculation as to whether Mr. BLAINE will be in the Cabinet.

The railroad Presidents are making agreements to maintain rates, while the other officials are breaking them. The Presidents should find some method of bringing their employees into harmony with their apparent policy if they desire to do so.

The report that an American correspondent had MATAFIA's forces against the Germans in a recent Samoan battle probably arose from the habit of the American reporter of "scooping" all other reporters. Mr. KLEIN doubtless wanted to get a diagram of the first shot and interview the skirmishers.

The vindication of German justice at the expense of the elder BISMARCK in the Geffcken case came simultaneously with the vindication of MORIER and the late Emperor FREDERICK at the expense of both BISMARCKS. It is remarkable that FREDERICK dead can rap their fingers more severely than he ever did when living.

By the simple process of saying to the telephone monopoly, "Cut your rates or remove your poles from our roads," Cook County's Commissioners have secured a 50 per cent reduction of telephone charges. It is to be hoped that the telephone legislation enacted at Jefferson City this winter will increase rather than diminish the authority of each municipality to settle the telephone question for itself.

JUDGE TULEY of Chicago will on Saturday deliver an important decision on the right of the police to prevent gatherings, assumed by them to be combinations of disorderly persons meeting for criminal purposes. The spirit in which he will handle the subject is probably manifested in his remark that it is to the credit of our country that no similar exercise of police authority has yet been passed upon by our courts, and that it is as important to suppress disorderly and criminal combinations as it is to preserve inviolate the right of free speech and peaceable assembly.

The Haytian authorities are demonstrating their ability to hold what they capture in an altogether novel way. Admiral LEROI nominally has possession of the Haytian Republic, but has been unable to obtain actual possession, because the occupancy of the ship by the Althay Haytian soldiers has made it uninhabitable for anybody else. There seems to be a general willingness to let the negro republic alone in its fifth and savage and a conclusion of its troubles in the victory of Gen. HIPOLYTE is probable at an early date.

COLLECTOR SEXTON has at last taken efficient action towards suppressing the dives in this city by refusing to issue saloon licenses to two keepers of notorious dives—PAT MONTAGUE and JOHN DAVIS. Both DAVIS and MONTAGUE have been reported by the Board of Police Commissioners as persons unfit to receive saloon licenses. It was at MONTAGUE's place that GUS BRANCONIO came to his death in a mysterious way, and the Post-Dispatch then called attention to his disreputable record as a dive-keeper. Collector SEXTON has done his duty in refusing licenses to these men, and it is to be hoped he will continue to act on this line.

The New York Supreme Court Circuit has decided in the suit of the State against the North River Sugar Refining Co. that the latter, by selling its stock to the Sugar Trust and closing its works, simply passed out of existence as a corporation. If the General Term and the Court of Appeals sustain this decision, which is in line with many recent decisions, the effect will be to resolve the Sugar Trust into a mere partnership succeeding to the property rights and pecuniary responsibilities of the various corporations composing the trust, as any purchaser might, without acquiring any of the corporate rights conferred by the charters upon the defunct corporations. As the Sugar Trust will not be dispossessed of the property by this decision, we do not see how it can impair the booming prosperity of that monopoly.

The Nicaragua Canal Co., already fully incorporated by State action, asked for incorporation by the United States on the ground that such incorporation was needed to secure to the company the benefit of the approval, protection and moral support of the United States Government. If that avowed object was the sole object of the bill, we do not see what exceptions the friends of the enterprise in the Senate can take to the amendments imposed by the House. These merely require that a majority of the directors shall be citizens of the United States and the rest citizens of Nicaragua; that the company shall make an annual report to our Secretary of the Interior; that the company shall accept no further concessions from Nicaragua affecting the rights of our citizens without the consent of our Government; that the stock shall be paid for in money and shall not be increased above $100,000,000 except by a vote of two-thirds of the stock; and one House amendment expressly declares that the United States shall not be responsible for the company's debts. Without such amendments it would be a dangerous measure. It should not be passed in any shape which will create a basis for such claims as the bankrupt Panama Canal Co. is now pressing with strong popular support upon the French Government.

STRUCK OIL.

Successful Well-Boring in Sparta—Gored by a Bull—Illinois Items.

SPRINGFIELD, January 9.—The Illinois Board of Pharmacy met to-day and began the examination of forty-two applicants for registration as pharmacists.

SPARTA, January 9.—Yesterday the workmen in gas well No. 2 struck oil at 910 feet. There are no great quantities of it and the boring is continued.

GALENA, January 9.—John Patterson of Shullsburg, Wis., was gored to death yesterday by a Holstein bull he was leading to his barn.

NAMESKI, January 9.—The man who was killed here by a railroad train on January 2 is supposed to be John Johnson, Jr., who formerly kept a saloon on the Manchester road, west of St. Louis.

DECATUR, January 9.—There will be a special meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Union Labor party to consider the proposition to unite all labor parties in the State under the name of the Union.

CLINTON, January 9.—A grand banquet was given the chiefs of the Volunteer Fire Department of Illinois, who are in convention here, last night. The chiefs have determined upon Lincoln as the place for the next convention and Lincoln for the next tournament.

MOLINE, January 9.—The store of Simon Marsh, a merchant tailor, was closed by the sheriff yesterday.

CHAMPAIGN, January 9.—Nicholas Owens, an old man 55 years of age, was found dead in a ditch yesterday. He died of exposure while intoxicated.

CHICAGO, January 9.—Inspector Bonfield and Capt. Schaeck began another suit against the 7-time yesterday, the damages asked for being $100,000. Judge Tukey announced that on Saturday he would render a decision in the suit of the Arbeiterbund for an injunction against the police. A National German-American Prohibition League was organized last night.

Loss, $1,500.

A two-story frame house owned and occupied by Henry Siebek in the rear of 7319 La-salle avenue as a store-room for "pokes," wheels, etc., was burned down last night. Cause unknown; loss, $1,500; insurance, about the same. The horses attached to Engine 10 after being unhooked at the fire ran away.

ST. LOUIS MARKET.
 The election held on "Change to-day" for a President, Vice-President, and members of the House of Representatives, attracted a large number of voters, and the result was a close one. The regular ticket of the Republican party, headed by Governor Miller, was elected by a majority of about 10,000 votes. The Democratic ticket, headed by Governor Miller, was defeated by a majority of about 10,000 votes. The result was a close one, and the election was one of the most interesting of the year.
